I was really to be going on holiday. I'd been looking forward to it for weeks.

On the way to the airport, we had to take our dog to my auntie's house. I felt that we had to leave him behind. Mum told me that Buster was having his own holiday.

As soon as Buster saw Auntie Sue's huge garden, he and didn't look back. I looked over at Molly the and she looked scared when she saw Buster racing around the garden!

On the way to the airport, there was a traffic jam. Dad was because he didn't want us to miss our flight. Finally, we arrived in time and Dad calmed down!

Once we'd taken off, I started to feel , so I had something to drink and felt much better. When we landed safely, I .

As soon as we got off the aeroplane, the heat hit me. I felt and was glad I had packed T-shirts, shorts and sun cream!

The airport was a very busy place so I stayed close to my parents. We collected our bags and got in a taxi, which took us to our hotel. I where we were going.

In our hotel room, my was much bigger than the one I slept in at home. We also had a beautiful view of the sea.

During the week, I went swimming, played and a diary so I didn't forget the things I had done. The best part of our holiday was going whale watching. I was when I saw one for the first time. It was enormous!

On the way home, I was to leave but I was to know I'd be seeing Buster again soon.
