

The learning station has lots of movement and action games that children really enjoy.

<https://www.youtube.com/user/TheLearningStation>

Excellent phonics game (access free through the website)

For pupils practising phonics.

<https://www.teachyourmonstertoread.com/>

Another great website with Art and sensory activities to keep children occupied and happy.

<https://littlebinsforlittlehands.com>

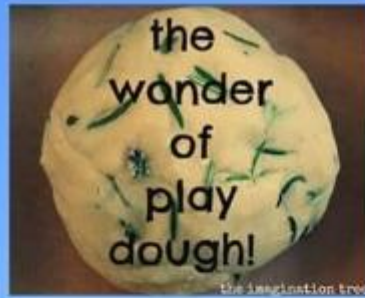

Joe Wicks – PE workout on YouTube.
Daily 9-9:30.
Fun for the whole family!

Cosmic kids Yoga – Story telling yoga with short and long sessions.
Search for cosmic kids on YouTube.

Excellent e-library with Oxford Reading Tree books that read aloud to you.
Suitable for all ages/abilities.
<https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/>

The imagination tree has wonderful sensory recipes and ideas to keep kids amused for hours!!
<https://theimaginationtree.com/>

Free visual recipes for cooking. They also come with maths activities as well as photo recipes.
<http://www.able2learn.com>

Excellent sensory/experiment ideas for the kids.
<https://www.learning4kids.net/>

To keep practising zones of regulation here is a great website with video clips and links to strategies.
<http://mrsduranteszoneswebly.com/the-zones-of-regulation.html>

Google Chrome music lab has lots of interactive music apps to choose from for all abilities.
<https://musiclab.chromeexperiments.com/Experiments>

