

Online Safety Guidance

If you are using online support from, for example, a tutor or organisation, it is vitally important that you check they are reputable and that they, as an individual or an organisation, can provide you with evidence that they are safe and can be trusted to have online access to your child.